GOVERNMENT HAS HOTEL FOR DESIRABLE TENANT

Treasury Department Advertises for Offers to Lease the Grand-Without Rum Privilege.

Acting Secretary Byron R. Newton of the Treasury Department has advertised the Grand Hotel property, 15th and Pennsylvania avenue, for rent and inviting offers. This follows the relection of pending offers by Chief Clerk James L. Wilmeth, custodian of the The Grand Hotel Company, tenants dispossessed by the government, paid a rental of $4,500 a year. Chief Clerk Wilmeth rejected offers of $2,030 and of $3,600 a year rental.

The property will be leased without bar privileges, as the federal authorities have positively set their faces against further sale of liquor on the premises. This will undoubtedly lessen the value of the premises for hotel Building Has Eighty-Eight Rooms.

The building has eighty-eight rooms, each equipped with hot and cold water welve rooms with baths adjoining, modern plumbing, steam heat, elevators. The papering and painting is regarded as in good condition and all the rooms light and ounny. It is advertised as in the heart of the business section and a most advantageous corner for a hotel.

The Grand Hotel Company is occupying the premises at the pleasure of the Treasury Department. The former tenants are anxious to dispose of some of their effects to the tenant who shall succeed them.
